KANSAS CITY, MO – Maxie Mathis from Arkansas Tech and Julie Stringer from Lewis-Clark State ID have been named NAIA Division I men's and women's national basketball players of the week, respectively. Eric Kline from Northern State SD and Amy Zehr from Cedarville OH have been named NAIA Division II men's and women's national basketball players of the week, respectively. The players were honored for their performances from Jan. 4-10 games.

Mathis, a 6-7, senior forward from Russellville, Ark., averaged 20.5 points and 8.5 rebounds a game in four Wonder Boy victories last week – including wins against the top two ranked teams in NAIA Division I. Mathis tallied 15 points and had 11 rebounds in a 71-70 victory against No. 2 Georgetown KY then followed that performance with 25 points and eight rebounds in an 86-71 win against No. 1 and defending national runner-up Central Arkansas. He also had 33 points and 10 rebounds in a 98-94 road win against Arkansas-Monticello.

Stringer, a 6-0, senior forward from Bundaburg, Australia, totaled 63 points, 21 rebounds and 13 steals in two Warrior victories. She had game highs of 33 points, 10 rebounds and six steals in a 99-63 win against Puget Sound WA and game highs of 30 points, 11 rebounds and seven steals against Western Washington. She has averaged 33.7 points in her last three games.

Kline, a 6-1 sophomore guard from Aberdeen, S.D., erupted for a school single-game record 48 points in Northern State's 131-93 win against Minot State ND. The point total set a single-game mark for the Wolves. He followed with 26 points in an 87-61 victory against Jamestown ND. The Wolves have set a school record for most consecutive wins with their 15-0 start this season.

Zehr, a 5-9, senior forward from Fort Wayne, Ind., averaged 27.0 points and 17.7 rebounds in a 3-0 week for Cedarville. She scored 23 points and had nine rebounds against Mount Vernon Nazarene OH, 33 points and 18 rebounds against Ohio Dominican and then capped the week with a 25-point, 26-rebound (setting a school record) performance against Urbana OH. With the victories, the Yellow Jackets have now won 13 straight games.

NOTING THE NAIA

WOMEN'S DIVISION I THREE-POINT RECORD FALLS...Marsha Maynard, a sophomore guard from Pikeville KY, set an NAIA Division I women's record for most three-point field goals made in a game when she connected on 11 three-pointers in 19 attempts Jan. 9 against Indiana Southeast. The 11 three-point field goals made bettered the previous mark of 10 shared by three individuals. The three-point barrage helped Maynard scored 37 points in Pikeville's 70-67 win. Earlier in the week, she had 26 points in an 87-80 victory against Campbellsville KY.

NORTHERN STATE SD PROGRAMS OFF TO FAST STARTS...Both the men's and women's basketball programs at Northern State SD are off to fast starts in the 1992-93 season. The Wolves' have already set a school record for most consecutive wins in their 15-0 start. The team established a school single-game scoring record in a 131-93 win Jan. 6 against Minot State ND.

Meanwhile, the Lady Wolves – the defending NAIA Division II champions – won their first 12 games this season before losing Jan. 9 to NAIA Division I Minnesota-Duluth. Prior to that loss, Northern State's basketball programs had combined to win 27 straight games this season and 31 in a row, dating back to last season.

COACHING MILESTONES...Men: Bruce MacGregor from Husson ME recorded his 500th career victory earlier this season. Women: Lewis-Clark State ID coach Mike Divilbliss compiled his 100th career victory in the Lady Warriors' 74-61 triumph Dec. 19 against Northwest Nazarene ID.

THE 2,000-POINT CLUB...Leigh Swanson, a senior guard from Auburn-Montgomery AL scored her 2,000th career point in the Senators' 101-49 win Jan. 6 against Georgia Southwestern. She became the first woman in school and District 27 history to surpass the 2,000-point mark.

THE 1,000-POINT CLUB...Jenny Asbury from Wilmington DE has become the first person in Wilmington women's basketball history to score 1,000 career points. She now has 1,202. Shortly after Asbury cracked the barrier, teammate Missy Burris followed suit. Burris now has 1,090 career points. Other 1,000-point club members include Jennifer Yeager from Holy Family PA and Matt Stuart from Caldwell NJ.

NOTES...Women: India Adams, a 5-9 senior forward from Belmont Abbey NC, averaged 31.0 points and 12.5 rebounds a game while shooting .568 percent from the field in two team victories last week. In a 97-74 win against St. Leo FL, she tallied 29 points, 13 rebounds and had five steals. In a 78-57 win against Pfeiffer NC, she tallied 33 points, had 12 rebounds and four blocked shots. She is now just 91 points shy of 2,000 for her career...Simon Fraser BC, ranked No. 8 in the Division I preseason poll, suffered its first District 1 loss since 1990 in a 66-65 setback Jan. 8 to Seattle WA. The loss snapped the Lady Clan's 48-game district winning streak...Lola Jones, a junior center from Bluefield State WV, recorded the school's first-ever "triple-double" in women's basketball by scoring 26 points, grabbing 18 rebounds and blocking 10 shots in her team's 71-65 win Jan. 8 against Fairmont State WV. Jones has now won the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference player of the week honor the last four times and four of the five weeks the award has been presented this season...Janet Gribnitz, a junior guard from the University of Dallas TX, averaged 28.5 points while shooting .548 from the floor in two team victories last week. Men: Henry Webb, a senior guard from Alice Lloyd KY, helped the Division II Eagles to victories against Division I foes Berry GA (100-91) and Birmingham-Southern AL (80-75) Jan. 2-3 in the Birmingham-Southern Tourney. Webb was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player...Bill Elliott, a senior guard from MidAmerica Nazarene KS, is rapidly approaching the NAIA and college's all-time three-point field goal made record of 429. Elliott had 406 three-pointers entering action Jan. 9...Senior forward Chris Razler from Holy Family PA averaged 29.5 points, 15.0 rebounds and 6.5 assists for the Tigers in two contests last week. He had 29 points, 14 rebounds and seven assists in a 102-101 double overtime victory against Wilmington DE...Junior center John Pierce from David Lipscomb TN has now scored in double figures in 91 straight games. He has scored more than 40 points in a game five times and more than 50 once this season. Pierce averaged 38.0 points and 10.5 rebounds in two Bisons wins last week...Sophomore guard Kenneth Watson from Incarnate Word TX has helped his team to a 14-1 start this season by averaging 15.1 points and nearly 4.0 assists per game...Cedarville OH senior forward Ken Rucker compiled 48 points and 37 rebounds in two Yellow Jacket victories this past week. He needs 71 points to become the first Cedarville player to amass more than 2,000 career points and 1,000 career rebounds...Senior forward Tommy Tormohlen from Berry GA averaged 34.0 points and 10.5 rebounds in his team's 1-1 record last week. He is the son of former NBA great Gene Tormohlen.

NOTE TO SIDs/MEDIA ON BASKETBALL MAILING PROCEDURE...Sports information directors at member institutions are advised that this year only men's and/or women's basketball statistics for the division in which their institution competes will be mailed on a weekly basis. Those media who are located in districts which sponsor either Division I or Division II basketball will be mailed only those men's and women's statistics for the division which is sponsored in the district. Media who are located in districts that sponsor both Division I and II basketball will be mailed divisional statistics for men and women on an alternating weekly basis, beginning with Division I this week followed by Division II next week, etc. For the weeks which these media do not receive a particular division's statistics by mail, the statistics may be obtained by contacting the district information director. District information directors will receive both Division I and II men's and women's statistics weekly.
